

AUTHOR VISIT

Saturday, September 17 at 2 p.m.

Orlando Public Library, Children's Library

Meet local author, Maria Cox and be inspired by her first children's book Virginia-Lee, Happy Me! Maria will read her story starring the loveable character, Virginia-Lee, followed by a book signing and sale.

Maria Cox has been working in the field of performing arts and education for over 20 years as a performing musician, clinician, teacher, and administrator in public and private educational institutions as well as non-profit performing arts organizations throughout the county. She holds a BA in music performance, MA in Music Education and Ph.D. in Secondary and Continuing Education with a music emphasis. Currently, she serves as a Faculty Administrator in the School of Teaching, Learning & Leadership within the College of Education at the University of Central Florida, as well as presents as a guest author on the process of writing, illustrating and publishing.

Call 407.835.7323
for more information.

Tell us what you think. Help shape the programming at your local library.
Fill out a program survey at www.ocls.info/survey. Your opinion is valued.

Any person requiring special accommodations to participate in any class or program due to a disability may arrange for accommodations by contacting the location at which the event is held at least seven days prior to the event.

Dancing Lilies Press
Children's Book Publisher